Dearest Allie: Skinny came down last Eve. bringing a large cooker out of her Elec. stove about 2/3 full of grand stew, she'd made out of your donation, lamb stew, which she had on simmering most of day, she told me she had made enough stew for a Russian Army^{and} she'd put everything in that kitchen sink ^{and that} was too clean, wish you'd been here to help eat a lot too.
The Kid gave me this stamp she'd took it from Roy which he'd rec'd from his Mother just before leaving, think there was at least 3 of 'em.
Haven't found mine yet.
Gas Red Dot & Dewey
had called on her yesterday afternoon, & asked her to go with them up coast & hunt for pasture land for a lot

2/ Race track horses, which are left high & dry with^{out} funds or much to keep them ^{any} Govt. or ³ woud allow them to be shipped home, guess some of Race men are pretty hard up.
Bae called up about 9 o'clk to Ray good by & Ray she was taking plenty warm duds. ^{and} they expected to be back by Sat Eve, ^{and} they might go as far as Atascadero.
yes! we've got "Black Beauty".
After Dad had breakfast the "Junes" come next when he begins to pull off specks & fold paper both dogs bounce to feet & hug close to Dad - so tight he can hardly walk, & they go out together or in bunch & Dad he chuckles & laughs like a ^{young} boy. Tantor insisted on sleeping with Dad, while Kingly Dogs slept by fire, when Wash got up at 2 o'clk, dogs must go out too.

3/ I went into Purrys yesterday after n. to exchange shirts & was told no shirts, asked for flannellette, no! flannellette for long, long time asked for sheets - no! sheets
" " muslin under slips
no! cotton slips;
Grand-morning! & Dad found the wash woman this A.M. so glad day is sunny I hope you gets my last letter tonite at home with 3.00 in it. I must get my ironing I damped yester. A.M. ^{rain} no letter yet from poor hope she's not sick, having a awful cold & deep snows in mid-west & East, & Cleveland papers had a lot of pictures yesterday A.M.
If you think best or well of you can ask for 5.00 back on shoes & Ray couldn't find Ration book.

much
much love
and XXXX
